PROJECTS

- Customer Satisfaction towards Online and Offline shopping with respective to Reliance Trends and Ajio
The study aimed to evaluate customer satisfaction in the context of both online and offline shopping experiences, focusing on Reliance Trends and AJIO within a one-month time frame. The research assessed customer perceptions and preferences, considering factors such as product variety, pricing, convenience, and overall satisfaction with the shopping process. Both online and offline channels were scrutinized to understand the strengths and weaknesses of each, providing insights into the factors influencing customer satisfaction. The time-limited scope of one month allowed for a focused analysis of recent customer experiences, aiming to capture dynamic shifts in satisfaction trends and providing valuable feedback for the enhancement of services provided by Reliance Trends and AJIO.
