

DHRITI BHATNAGAR

FASHION DESIGNER

ABOUT ME

I am Dhriti Bhatnagar, currently pursuing my degree in Fashion Designing at the World University of Design. As a passionate and budding fashion designer, I bring a unique blend of creativity and technical expertise to everything I do. My skills include pattern making, draping, embroidery, branding, costing, and merchandising, along with a deep understanding of the technical and digital aspects of clothing. I am driven by a desire to create clothing that inspires and tells a story. My goal is to explore new creative horizons, designing pieces that make a statement and empower those who wear them.
