

"Life Is A Race, To Win You Have To Fight"

PROFILE

A Detail-oriented, logical and thoughtful architecture student who believes functionality and simple design are fuels for the fire of good design. I'm seeking to enhancing my knowledge, software skills and exemplify my problem-solving and analytical skills. It would not only allow me to showcase my talents but also fulfill my goals and help me grow as a person. An architect learns something new everyday, one day it's patience, another day; perseverance and this opportunity would enable my journey of earning my stand, in the world of architecture.
